HONOR DEPARTING PASTOR.

Presbyterian Brotherhood Hold Banquet and Have Public Program
For Rev. and Mrs. Pfug.

Rev. G. A. Pfug will leave for his new charge at Vandalia, Ill., on Saturday or possibly Friday afternoon. In his honor before he left the city the Presbyterian Brotherhood, of which he has been the head for five years, gave him a farewell banquet and public program last night.

The banquet was served by Mr. Clifton at the Star restaurant and was attended by about forty men and boys. The meal was a fine one and was followed by a few toasts, under the direction of Dr. T. A. Borton, who acted as master of ceremonies. Rev. Mr. Yager, O. S. Ellis, Ralph Leonard and S. E. Boys made short talks. Mr. Leonard presented for the Brotherhood a half dozen very fine silver spoons, which Mr. Pfug received with some very grateful remarks.

At the church, the announced program was carried out. The speeches were very good and appropriate and threw many bouquets at the departing pastor and his good wife. The music by the quartet and the solos were a delight to all. The church was filled to the doors by the many who came to do honor the man who has been pastor of the church and an influence in the city for good during the past tight years he has lived here.
